

SAN BERNARDINO
FOURTH ANNUAL FAIR
OF THE 98TH DISTRICT AGRICULTURAL ASSOCIATION TO BE HELD AT THE PAVILION, SAN BERNARDINO, AND COLE'S RACE TRACK, Mile and a half southeast of San Bernardino, commencing
TUESDAY, OCTOBER 11
And Closing SATURDAY, OCTOBER 15,
Under the Management of the Following Officers:
L. M. HOLT, President and General Manager,
J. A. COLE, Race Track and Stock Exhibitor, RICHARD GIBB, Assistant Superintendent,
J. W. TIBBET, Superintendent of the Pavilion,
A. C. FISH, Manager World's Fair Display.
Entries close at the Pavilion on Tuesday, Oct. 11, at 4 p. m., and all articles for exhibit must be in place in the Pavilion by 10 o'clock of that day.
Entries for stock at the Race Track must be made by Tuesday, Oct. 4.
Premium List and Speed Programme will be furnished on application to the Secretary.
The northern portion of San Diego county as far south as the second Standard South, including San Jacinto, Winchester, Perris, Moreno, Alessandro, Elsinore, Murietta and Temecula, is invited to participate in the fair and compete for premiums.

STANDARD PIANOS.
THEY SAY IT'S "JUST AS GOOD"
The best that can be obtained for other Pianos is that they are "just as good" as the WEBER.
WEBER
WHY NOT PAY MORE AND HAVE THE BEST?
A Piano is the purchase of a lifetime, and care should be taken to select the one that will stand the test.
The WEBER is a piano that will stand the test.
PIANO
WITH A SOUL IN IT!
Agency for Southern California at BARTLETT'S MUSIC HOUSE.
103 North Spring-st.
AMUSEMENTS.
GRAND OPERA HOUSE.
Under the Direction of A. Hayman.
McLain & Lehman, Managers.
Three Nights, Commencing
FRIDAY, AND SATURDAY AND MATINEE.
Change of Bill at Every Performance.
The Eminent Irish-American Comedian,
"MR. DAN'S SULLY,"
And His Excellent Company.
Friday evening, DADDY NOLAN
Saturday matinee, DADDY NOLAN
Saturday night, CORNER GROCERY
Sale of sales commencing Friday morning.
GRAND OPERA HOUSE.
Under the Direction of A. Hayman.
McLain & Lehman, Managers.
TWO NIGHTS COMMENCING
FRIDAY, OCT. 14.
Jacob Litt and Thos. H. Davis' Transcontinental Farce Comedy
"YON KESON."
A distinct dramatic departure illustrated by
GUS HERGE.
Originator of Swedish dialect comedy, and a grand company of players from the
New Park Theatre, New York.
A Carload of Special Scenery.
Seats on Sale Monday.
GRAND OPERA HOUSE.
Under the Direction of A. Hayman.
McLain & Lehman, Managers.
Wednesday, Evening, Oct. 12, at 8, and a Grand
Family and School Matinee at 3 p. m.
Farwell tour of the world-renowned
and original
"MRS. GWYNETH THUMB"
(Countess Magli).
And 15 Selected Artists in the Musical
Farce Comedy
THE LITTLE COUNTRY.
By Charles Gayler, introducing the smallest
and most versatile actors in the world,
combined with J. P. Howe's Comedians.
Prices of Admission—Evening, as usual;
Matinee, 25 and 50c. Reserved seats now on sale.
HENRY J. KRAMER'S
SCHOOL FOR DANCING, GYMNASIUM, AND FENCING.
Classes for beginners, ladies and men
beginning Saturday afternoon only, from 1:30 to 3:30. Class commences Saturday afternoon,
Oct. 8.
Advanced class, ladies, misses and masters—
Saturday afternoon, 8:30 to 10:30. Class commences Saturday, Oct. 8, at 8:30. No visitors.
Classes for beginners, ladies and gentlemen—Monday and Thursday evenings, from 8 to 10.
Class commences Monday evening, Oct. 10, at 8:30.
Advanced class for ladies and gentlemen—
Wednesday evening only, at 8. Class commences Wednesday evening, Oct. 12.
MASSAGE.
HAMMAM BATHS, 220 S. MAIN ST.
Turkish, sulphur, vapor, electric, complexion massage and Hammam special baths
scientifically given. The only genuine Turkish bath in the city. Ladies' dept. open 8 a. m. to 6
p. m.; gentlemen's dept. open day and night.
MASSAGE, ELECTRICITY AND CHIROP-
DISTRY (TREATMENT), also something important to ladies. Please call on MRS. ROBBINS
at the Monroe, 108 & 110 North 4th St.
VAPOR AIR BATHS
AND MASSAGE INSTITUTE
630 S. BROADWAY—630

TONY TIPPLERS
London Social Circles Given a Shock.
Disclosures of Drunkenness Among Aristocratic Dames.
"Pick-me-ups" and "White Cups"
Required to Brace Them Up.
Other British Gossip—Morley Disposed of Turkish Losses—Irish Dynamite—Terrible Picture of Hard Times in England.
By Telegraph to The Times.
LONDON, Oct. 7.—[Copyright, 1892,
by the New York Associated Press.] A sharp and probably salutary shock has been given high social circles by a startling exposure in regard to the prevalence of drunkenness among aristocratic ladies made by Lady Frederick Cavendish and the Duchess of Bedford, at the church congress. Lady Frederick Cavendish said that she had been recently staying at a country mansion where roomy dining-room chairs were still used, the seats of which were deeply curved to save gentlemen from falling out after dinner, and that, although heavy drinking had been abandoned by men, women were becoming inveterate tipplers. Many ladies have recourse to "pick-me-ups" at 11 a. m., brandy and soda during the day, wine at dinner and something hot at bedtime.
She knew a young lady who could not get through the London season without taking a "cordial" kept handy at tea, and after a certain morning concert the lady beside her had called for a "white cup," a deceptive name for the champagne cup.
Lady Cavendish protested especially
against the fashion of the "pick-me-
ups," and old ones, too, accompanying gentlemen to the smoking room after dinner and sharing not only the cigars,
but the spirits. She said a distinguished physician had assured her that many ladies living lives had been ruined by
the use of stimulants, and that the
lady beside her had called for a "white
cup," a deceptive name for the champagne cup.
Lady Cavendish protested especially
against the fashion of the "pick-me-
ups," and old ones, too, accompanying gentlemen to the smoking room after
dinner and sharing not only the cigars,
but the spirits. She said a distinguished
physician had assured her that many
ladies living lives had been ruined by
the use of stimulants, and that the
lady beside her had called for a "white
cup," a deceptive name for the champagne cup.

THE DEAD OUTLAWS.
The Identity of "Texas Jack" at Last
Established.
Allie Ogee Not the Fugitive Member of
the Gang—Relatives Mourn the Bandits Killed at the Coffeyville
Fight.
By Telegraph to The Times.
COFFEYVILLE (Kan.), Oct. 7.—[By the
Associated Press.] Ben Dalton,
another of the outlaws, arrived here
this morning with his mother. He said
they had not seen Bob and the others
for two years and had no idea of what they were doing. He said nothing in
common with them, as he is a farmer
and tries to be a good citizen. The people of Coffeyville, he said, did their
duty, and while he deplored the loss of
his brothers, he also sorrowed for the
citizens who gave up their lives.
George Roadwell and E. L. Wilcox,
brother and brother-in-law, Dick
Broadwell, called "Texas Jack," arrived here today. They were greatly
surprised to hear of Dick being with
the gang. They had not heard from
him since last May, but had no idea he
was in the gang. They were greatly
surprised to hear of Dick being with
the gang. They had not heard from
him since last May, but had no idea he
was in the gang. They were greatly
surprised to hear of Dick being with
the gang. They had not heard from
him since last May, but had no idea he
was in the gang.

LIES TALLED.
Secretary Foster on National Finances.
Adlai Stevenson's Silly Stories About
the Treasury Refuted.
A Defense of the Financial Policy of the Administration.
Fusion a Flat Failure in Kansas—Hill Makes a Deal That Severs Cleveland—The Senator May Stump California.
By Telegraph to The Times.
FREDERICK CITY (Md.), Oct. 7.—[By the Associated Press.] When Hon.
Charles W. Foster, Secretary of the Treasury, and party arrived tonight,
they were given a most vociferous reception. They were escorted to a hall by a big procession.
The Secretary, in the course of his speech, took up the Democratic charge that the treasury is bankrupt, especially criticizing Vice-President Candidate Stevenson for gross ignorance on the question. He said:
If Stevenson were not ignorant, said the Secretary, he would know that this administration has redeemed and paid off $259,- 000,000 of its debt, with a saving in interest of $53,352,402. What about the indebtedness of the Government to pay them back? September 9, 1891, and which Stevenson says we couldn't pay? Holders of more than $25,000,000 of those bonds rejoice that they are not paid at 3 per cent., and the administration enjoys the enviable position of having placed a Government loan at a lower rate of interest and in a more advantageous position than any government on earth. The remaining $25,000,000 of debt has been paid. The Democratic leaders announced that they would reduce the appropriations $100,000,000 from those of the "million-dollar Congress."
But they have discovered that this was a billion-dollar country, and after all they said in denunciation of the "million-dollar Congress" they were not only unable to reduce appropriations $100,000,000, but actually increased them $40,000,000.
Notwithstanding these enormous appropriations, this Congress has secured the public service in many branches by lack of adequate provisions. For more than eight months the Democratic cry of a bankrupt treasury has been kept going, but at all times the treasury has promptly met every obligation of the Government. The revenues are increasing at the rate of $3,000,000 per month over last year. Of course there is an increase of expenditures, owing principally to payments for pensions, but the first three months of the year show a net gain in cash of $2,203,541.
The Secretary spoke at length on tariff, reciprocity, etc., and referring to the State bank panic in the Democratic platform, gave from personal experience a description of the evil effects of the wild-cat system of old.
Speaking of the international monetary conference, he said:
I am in possession of advice that lead me to hope that such action will be taken by the conference as will result in a satisfactory solution of the long-pending question of the bimetallic standard, and I am desiring that silver shall take its rightful place beside gold, I do not believe that the free coinage of silver as desired by many of our people, would accomplish the result desired. I admit that the problem of the bimetallic standard is a difficult one, and that the Republican party is equal to the occasion.
Several other speakers were heard.

POINTS OF THE MORNING'S NEWS.
BY TELEGRAPH.
Several Federal officials were ambushed and shot by Tennessee moonshiners.... The identity of the member of the Dalton gang who escaped from Coffeyville is unknown....
Oakland and San Jose were winners in the ball games.... At a recent church congress in London startling disclosures were made as to the prevalence of drinking among society ladies.... Great depression prevails in the agricultural and manufacturing industries of England.... Morley is in favor of releasing the Irish prisoners charged with dynamiting....
Secretary of the Treasury Foster delivered a vigorous speech at Frederick, Md.... There is a report that Senator Hill may stump California.... Kansas straight-out Democrats repudiated the recent deal with the People's party.... A robber held up a party of gamblers at San Francisco and shot a policeman.... The cruisers have arrived at Redondo.... French troops in Dahomey have defeated the natives.... Sir Edwin Arnold has issued a poem in memory of Tennyson.
IN AND ABOUT THE CITY.
Five thousand people were in attendance at the races yesterday.... A double verdict by the Coroner's jury in the Sands' murder....
Interesting damage suit on trial in the Suprior Court.... Uncle Billy Williams handsomer "canned".... News from neighboring counties.

CRESPISTS WIN
Venezuelan Rebels Sweep
All Before Them.
The Final Decisive Battle Attended
With Great Slaughter.
Fugitive Federals Butchered by the Furious Revolutionists.
Dictator Poldo Makes His Escape on a Vessel—His Last Official Act Another Insult to the United States.
By Telegraph to The Times.
NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—[By the Associated Press.] The Herald's Caracas cable confirms the reports of Crespo's victory in Venezuela. The decisive conflict was at San Pedro. It was a hot and bloody battle, but of short duration.
The discontented soldiers of the government army were no match for Crespo's men. Wholesale desertion to the ranks of the revolutionists added to the discomfiture of Villegas. Poldo's followers were dismayed by the terrible onslaught of the enemy. They wavered and fled after the battle had been raged for some time.
The Crespists followed up the advantage, using guns and machetes to wreak vengeance upon the demoralized fugitives. Many were killed in combat, a large majority of losses being on the government side, but the slaughter which characterized the pursuit of the unlucky soldiers of the administration troops were more numerous than those which fell in the battle itself.
Besides the capture of an immense amount of ammunition and arms, the Crespists have made hundreds of prisoners. Among the latter are many prominent leaders, including the commander-in-chief.
While part of the Crespists' victory is obtained through reliable sources, nothing like a complete list of casualties can be had. Without waiting to rest, his tired and demoralized men, Gen. Crespo is reported to have given the order to advance at once upon the capital. It is quite probable he is now in Caracas.
The latest defection is that of President Villegas. Poldo has invited Admiral Walker to leave the capital and take his cabinet. They boarded a vessel at La Guayra. It is reported they sailed for Europe, but this is not confirmed. Poldo's official visit was quite in keeping with his previous deeds. He cancelled the exequatur of both the American and British vice-consuls.
NEWS AT WASHINGTON.
Admiral Walker Fully Confirms the Reports of Crespo's Successes.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.—[By the Associated Press.] The Navy Department today received three dispatches from Rear-Admiral Walker, commanding the United States vessels in Venezuelan waters. These dispatches officially confirm the reported victory of the revolutionists under Crespo and the complete overthrow of the government forces.
The first dispatch received was sent by Admiral Walker Wednesday, but was detained somewhere. It reads:
It is reported that engagements have taken place, resulting in the total defeat of the government forces. The revolutionists are victorious. The revolutionists are successful.
Officials of the Navy Department decline to state whether or not any instructions have been forwarded to Admiral Walker, but it is said a message was immediately sent him to remain at La Guayra, and to order the Concord, now in Colon, back to Venezuela should he think occasion warranted her presence.
No dispatches were received later by the State Department from Venezuela.
It is probable the next step will be the formation of a new government, with Crespo at the head. The story that Consul Hanna, while out in a boat, was fired at by a warship is thought to have arisen from an accident, as had the Consul been fired on out of hostility to the United States either Minister Scruggs or Admiral Walker would certainly have promptly notified the authorities in Washington.
DYNAMITE AT HOMESTEAD.
An Attempt to Blow Up Forty Non-union Workmen.
HOMESTEAD (Pa.) Oct. 7.—[By the Associated Press.] A dastardly attempt was made last night to murder about forty non-union men in their beds. A dynamite bomb was thrown through a window in a boarding-house, where many non-union men lodge, about 2 o'clock this morning. The bomb exploded with great force, seriously damaging the building, but as the force was downward none of the inmates, who were sleeping on the upper floor, suffered anything more serious than a bad scare.
The strikers' advisory committee issued a statement this evening condemning the dastardly act and offering $100 for the arrest and conviction of the perpetrator.
Killed by an Explosion.
St. Louis, Oct. 7.—Mary Meekle, aged 25, and Mrs. Elizabeth Meekle, aged 58, were killed tonight by an explosion at their residence. The women placed a mixture of camphor and benzine in a closet to kill roaches. Tonight they went to the closet to see if the mixture had any effect. They lit a match and the explosion followed. The side of the house was blown out by the explosion.
Death of an Actor.
Detroit (Mich.) Oct. 7.—L. F. Band, the veteran actor, died here today after a short illness.

THE DEAD OUTLAWS.
The Identity of "Texas Jack" at Last
Established.
Allie Ogee Not the Fugitive Member of
the Gang—Relatives Mourn the
Bandits Killed at the Coffeyville
Fight.
By Telegraph to The Times.
COFFEYVILLE (Kan.), Oct. 7.—[By the
Associated Press.] Ben Dalton,
another of the outlaws, arrived here
this morning with his mother. He said
they had not seen Bob and the others
for two years and had no idea of what
they were doing. He said nothing in
common with them, as he is a farmer
and tries to be a good citizen. The
people of Coffeyville, he said, did their
duty, and while he deplored the loss of
his brothers, he also sorrowed for the
citizens who gave up their lives.
George Roadwell and E. L. Wilcox,
brother and brother-in-law, Dick
Broadwell, called "Texas Jack," ar-
rived here today. They were greatly
surprised to hear of Dick being with
the gang. They had not heard from
him since last May, but had no idea he
was in the gang. They were greatly
surprised to hear of Dick being with
the gang. They had not heard from
him since last May, but had no idea he
was in the gang. They were greatly
surprised to hear of Dick being with
the gang. They had not heard from
him since last May, but had no idea he
was in the gang.

THE DEAD OUTLAWS.
The Identity of "Texas Jack" at Last
Established.
Allie Ogee Not the Fugitive Member of
the Gang—Relatives Mourn the
Bandits Killed at the Coffeyville
Fight.
By Telegraph to The Times.
COFFEYVILLE (Kan.), Oct. 7.—[By the
Associated Press.] Ben Dalton,
another of the outlaws, arrived here
this morning with his mother. He said
they had not seen Bob and the others
for two years and had no idea of what
they were doing. He said nothing in
common with them, as he is a farmer
and tries to be a good citizen. The
people of Coffeyville, he said, did their
duty, and while he deplored the loss of
his brothers, he also sorrowed for the
citizens who gave up their lives.
George Roadwell and E. L. Wilcox,
brother and brother-in-law, Dick
Broadwell, called "Texas Jack," ar-
rived here today. They were greatly
surprised to hear of Dick being with
the gang. They had not heard from
him since last May, but had no idea he
was in the gang. They were greatly
surprised to hear of Dick being with
the gang. They had not heard from
him since last May, but had no idea he
was in the gang.

THE DEAD OUTLAWS.
The Identity of "Texas Jack" at Last
Established.
Allie Ogee Not the Fugitive Member of
the Gang—Relatives Mourn the
Bandits Killed at the Coffeyville
Fight.
By Telegraph to The Times.
COFFEYVILLE (Kan.), Oct. 7.—[By the
Associated Press.] Ben Dalton,
another of the outlaws, arrived here
this morning with his mother. He said
they had not seen Bob and the others
for two years and had no idea of what
they were doing. He said nothing in
common with them, as he is a farmer
and tries to be a good citizen. The
people of Coffeyville, he said, did their
duty, and while he deplored the loss of
his brothers, he also sorrowed for the
citizens who gave up their lives.
George Roadwell and E. L. Wilcox,
brother and brother-in-law, Dick
Broadwell, called "Texas Jack," ar-
rived here today. They were greatly
surprised to hear of Dick being with
the gang. They had not heard from
him since last May, but had no idea he
was in the gang. They were greatly
surprised to hear of Dick being with
the gang. They had not heard from
him since last May, but had no idea he
was in the gang.

THE DEAD OUTLAWS.
The Identity of "Texas Jack" at Last
Established.
Allie Ogee Not the Fugitive Member of
the Gang—Relatives Mourn the
Bandits Killed at the Coffeyville
Fight.
By Telegraph to The Times.
COFFEYVILLE (Kan.), Oct. 7.—[By the
Associated Press.] Ben Dalton,
another of the outlaws, arrived here
this morning with his mother. He said
they had not seen Bob and the others
for two years and had no idea of what
they were doing. He said nothing in
common with them, as he is a farmer
and tries to be a good citizen. The
people of Coffeyville, he said, did their
duty, and while he deplored the loss of
his brothers, he also sorrowed for the
citizens who gave up their lives.
George Roadwell and E. L. Wilcox,
brother and brother-in-law, Dick
Broadwell, called "Texas Jack," ar-
rived here today. They were greatly
surprised to hear of Dick being with
the gang. They had not heard from
him since last May, but had no idea he
was in the gang. They were greatly
surprised to hear of Dick being with
the gang. They had not heard from
him since last May, but had no idea he
was in the gang.

THE DEAD OUTLAWS.
The Identity of "Texas Jack" at Last
Established.
Allie Ogee Not the Fugitive Member of
the Gang—Relatives Mourn the
Bandits Killed at the Coffeyville
Fight.
By Telegraph to The Times.
COFFEYVILLE (Kan.), Oct. 7.—[By the
Associated Press.] Ben Dalton,
another of the outlaws, arrived here
this morning with his mother. He said
they had not seen Bob and the others
for two years and had no idea of what
they were doing. He said nothing in
common with them, as he is a farmer
and tries to be a good citizen. The
people of Coffeyville, he said, did their
duty, and while he deplored the loss of
his brothers, he also sorrowed for the
citizens who gave up their lives.
George Roadwell and E. L. Wilcox,
brother and brother-in-law, Dick
Broadwell, called "Texas Jack," ar-
rived here today. They were greatly
surprised to hear of Dick being with
the gang. They had not heard from
him since last May, but had no idea he
was in the gang. They were greatly
surprised to hear of Dick being with
the gang. They had not heard from
him since last May, but had no idea he
was in the gang.

THE DEAD OUTLAWS.
The Identity of "Texas Jack" at Last
Established.
Allie Ogee Not the Fugitive Member of
the Gang—Relatives Mourn the
Bandits Killed at the Coffeyville
Fight.
By Telegraph to The Times.
COFFEYVILLE (Kan.), Oct. 7.—[By the
Associated Press.] Ben Dalton,
another of the outlaws, arrived here
this morning with his mother. He said
they had not seen Bob and the others
for two years and had no idea of what
they were doing. He said nothing in
common with them, as he is a farmer
and tries to be a good citizen. The
people of Coffeyville, he said, did their
duty, and while he deplored the loss of
his brothers, he also sorrowed for the
citizens who gave up their lives.
George Roadwell and E. L. Wilcox,
brother and brother-in-law, Dick
Broadwell, called "Texas Jack," ar-
rived here today. They were greatly
surprised to hear of Dick being with
the gang. They had not heard from
him since last May, but had no idea he
was in the gang. They were greatly
surprised to hear of Dick being with
the gang. They had not heard from
him since last May, but had no idea he
was in the gang.

THE DEAD OUTLAWS.
The Identity of "Texas Jack" at Last
Established.
Allie Ogee Not the Fugitive Member of
the Gang—Relatives Mourn the
Bandits Killed at the Coffeyville
Fight.
By Telegraph to The Times.
COFFEYVILLE (Kan.), Oct. 7.—[By the
Associated Press.] Ben Dalton,
another of the outlaws, arrived here
this morning with his mother. He said
they had not seen Bob and the others
for two years and had no idea of what
they were doing. He said nothing in
common with them, as he is a farmer
and tries to be a good citizen. The
people of Coffeyville, he said, did their
duty, and while he deplored the loss of
his brothers, he also sorrowed for the
citizens who gave up their lives.
George Roadwell and E. L. Wilcox,
brother and brother-in-law, Dick
Broadwell, called "Texas Jack," ar-
rived here today. They were greatly
surprised to hear of Dick being with
the gang. They had not heard from
him since last May, but had no idea he
was in the gang. They were greatly
surprised to hear of Dick being with
the gang. They had not heard from
him since last May, but had no idea he
was in the gang.

THE DEAD OUTLAWS.
The Identity of "Texas Jack" at Last
Established.
Allie Ogee Not the Fugitive Member of
the Gang—Relatives Mourn the
Bandits Killed at the Coffeyville
Fight.
By Telegraph to The Times.
COFFEYVILLE (Kan.), Oct. 7.—[By the
Associated Press.] Ben Dalton,
another of the outlaws, arrived here
this morning with his mother. He said
they had not seen Bob and the others
for two years and had no idea of what
they were doing. He said nothing in
common with them, as he is a farmer
and tries to be a good citizen. The
people of Coffeyville, he said, did their
duty, and while he deplored the loss of
his brothers, he also sorrowed for the
citizens who gave up their lives.
George Roadwell and E. L. Wilcox,
brother and brother-in-law, Dick
Broadwell, called "Texas Jack," ar-
rived here today. They were greatly
surprised to hear of Dick being with
the gang. They had not heard from
him since last May, but had no idea he
was in the gang. They were greatly
surprised to hear of Dick being with
the gang. They had not heard from
him since last May, but had no idea he
was in the gang.

THE DEAD OUTLAWS.
The Identity of "Texas Jack" at Last
Established.
Allie Ogee Not the Fugitive Member of
the Gang—Relatives Mourn the
Bandits Killed at the Coffeyville
Fight.
By Telegraph to The Times.
COFFEYVILLE (Kan.), Oct. 7.—[By the
Associated Press.] Ben Dalton,
another of the outlaws, arrived here
this morning with his mother. He said
they had not seen Bob and the others
for two years and had no idea of what
they were doing. He said nothing in
common with them, as he is a farmer
and tries to be a good citizen. The
people of Coffeyville, he said, did their
duty, and while he deplored the loss of
his brothers, he also sorrowed for the
citizens who gave up their lives.
George Roadwell and E. L. Wilcox,
brother and brother-in-law, Dick
Broadwell, called "Texas Jack," ar-
rived here today. They were greatly
surprised to hear of Dick being with
the gang. They had not heard from
him since last May, but had no idea he
was in the gang. They were greatly
surprised to hear of Dick being with
the gang. They had not heard from
him since last May, but had no idea he
was in the gang.

THE DEAD OUTLAWS.
The Identity of "Texas Jack" at Last
Established.
Allie Ogee Not the Fugitive Member of
the Gang—Relatives Mourn the
Bandits Killed at the Coffeyville
Fight.
By Telegraph to The Times.
COFFEYVILLE (Kan.), Oct. 7.—[By the
Associated Press.] Ben Dalton,
another of the outlaws, arrived here
this morning with his mother. He said
they had not seen Bob and the others
for two years and had no idea of what
they were doing. He said nothing in
common with them, as he is a farmer
and tries to be a good citizen. The
people of Coffeyville, he said, did their
duty, and while he deplored the loss of
his brothers, he also sorrowed for the
citizens who gave up their lives.
George Roadwell and E. L. Wilcox,
brother and brother-in-law, Dick
Broadwell, called "Texas Jack," ar-
rived here today. They were greatly
surprised to hear of Dick being with
the gang. They had not heard from
him since last May, but had no idea he
was in the gang. They were greatly
surprised to hear of Dick being with
the gang. They had not heard from
him since last May, but had no idea he
was in the gang.

GRAND OPERA HOUSE.
Under the Direction of A. Hayman.
McLain & Lehman, Managers.
TWO NIGHTS COMMENCING
FRIDAY, OCT. 14.
Jacob Litt and Thos. H. Davis' Transcontinental Farce Comedy
"YON KESON."
A distinct dramatic departure illustrated by
GUS HERGE.
Originator of Swedish dialect comedy, and a
grand company of players from the
New Park Theatre, New York.
A Carload of Special Scenery.
Seats on Sale Monday.
GRAND OPERA HOUSE.
Under the Direction of A. Hayman.
McLain & Lehman, Managers.
Wednesday, Evening, Oct. 12, at 8, and a Grand
Family and School Matinee at 3 p. m.
Farwell tour of the world-renowned
and original
"MRS. GWYNETH THUMB"
(Countess Magli).
And 15 Selected Artists in the Musical
Farce Comedy
THE LITTLE COUNTRY.
By Charles Gayler, introducing the smallest
and most versatile actors in the world,
combined with J. P. Howe's Comedians.
Prices of Admission—Evening, as usual;
Matinee, 25 and 50c. Reserved seats now on sale.
HENRY J. KRAMER'S
SCHOOL FOR
DANCING, GYMNASIUM, AND FENCING.
Classes for beginners, ladies and men
beginning Saturday afternoon only, from 1:30 to 3:30. Class commences Saturday afternoon,
Oct. 8.
Advanced class, ladies, misses and masters—
Saturday afternoon, 8:30 to 10:30. Class commences Saturday, Oct. 8, at 8:30. No visitors.
Classes for beginners, ladies and gentlemen—Monday and Thursday evenings, from 8 to 10.
Class commences Monday evening, Oct. 10, at 8:30.
Advanced class for ladies and gentlemen—
Wednesday evening only, at 8. Class commences Wednesday evening, Oct. 12.
MASSAGE.
HAMMAM BATHS, 220 S. MAIN ST.
Turkish, sulphur, vapor, electric, complexion massage and Hammam special baths
scientifically given. The only genuine Turkish bath in the city. Ladies' dept. open 8 a. m. to 6
p. m.; gentlemen's dept. open day and night.
MASSAGE, ELECTRICITY AND CHIROP-
DISTRY (TREATMENT), also something important to ladies. Please call on MRS. ROBBINS
at the Monroe, 108 & 110 North 4th St.
VAPOR AIR BATHS
AND MASSAGE INSTITUTE
630 S. BROADWAY—630

THE DEAD OUTLAWS.
The Identity of "Texas Jack" at Last
Established.
Allie Ogee Not the Fugitive Member of
the Gang—Relatives Mourn the
Bandits Killed at the Coffeyville
Fight.
By Telegraph to The Times.
COFFEYVILLE (Kan.), Oct. 7.—[By the
Associated Press.] Ben Dalton,
another of the outlaws, arrived here
this morning with his mother. He said
they had not seen Bob and the others
for two years and had no idea of what
they were doing. He said nothing in
common with them, as he is a farmer
and tries to be a good citizen. The
people of Coffeyville, he said, did their
duty, and while he deplored the loss of
his brothers, he also sorrowed for the
citizens who gave up their lives.
George Roadwell and E. L. Wilcox,
brother and brother-in-law, Dick
Broadwell, called "Texas Jack," ar-
rived here today. They were greatly
surprised to hear of Dick being with
the gang. They had not heard from
him since last May, but had no idea he
was in the gang. They were greatly
surprised to hear of Dick being with
the gang. They had not heard from
him since last May, but had no idea he
was in the gang.

THE DEAD OUTLAWS.
The Identity of "Texas Jack" at Last
Established.
Allie Ogee Not the Fugitive Member of
the Gang—Relatives Mourn the
Bandits Killed at the Coffeyville
Fight.
By Telegraph to The Times.
COFFEYVILLE (Kan.), Oct. 7.—[By the
Associated Press.] Ben Dalton,
another of the outlaws, arrived here
this morning with his mother. He said
they had not seen Bob and the others
for two years and had no idea of what
they were doing. He said nothing in
common with them, as he is a farmer
and tries to be a good citizen. The
people of Coffeyville, he said, did their
duty, and while he deplored the loss of
his brothers, he also sorrowed for the
citizens who gave up their lives.
George Roadwell and E. L. Wilcox,
brother and brother-in-law, Dick
Broadwell, called "Texas Jack," ar-
rived here today. They were greatly
surprised to hear of Dick being with
the gang. They had not heard from
him since last May, but had no idea he
was in the gang. They were greatly
surprised to hear of Dick being with
the gang. They had not heard from
him since last May, but had no idea he
was in the gang.

THE DEAD OUTLAWS.
The Identity of "Texas Jack" at Last
Established.
Allie Ogee Not the Fugitive Member of
the Gang—Relatives Mourn the
Bandits Killed at the Coffeyville
Fight.
By Telegraph to The Times.
COFFEYVILLE (Kan.), Oct. 7.—[By the
Associated Press.] Ben Dalton,
another of the outlaws, arrived here
this morning with his mother. He said
they had not seen Bob and the others
for two years and had no idea of what
they were doing. He said nothing in
common with them, as he is a farmer
and tries to be a good citizen. The
people of Coffeyville, he said, did their
duty, and while he deplored the loss of
his brothers, he also sorrowed for the
citizens who gave up their lives.
George Roadwell and E. L. Wilcox,
brother and brother-in-law, Dick
Broadwell, called "Texas Jack," ar-
rived here today. They were greatly
surprised to hear of Dick being with
the gang. They had not heard from
him since last May, but had no idea he
was in the gang. They were greatly
surprised to hear of Dick being with
the gang. They had not heard from
him since last May, but had no idea he
was in the gang.

THE DEAD OUTLAWS.
The Identity of "Texas Jack" at Last
Established.
Allie Ogee Not the Fugitive Member of
the Gang—Relatives Mourn the
Bandits Killed at the Coffeyville
Fight.
By Telegraph to The Times.
COFFEYVILLE (Kan.), Oct. 7.—[By the
Associated Press.] Ben Dalton,
another of the outlaws, arrived here
this morning with his mother. He said
they had not seen Bob and the others
for two years and had no idea of what
they were doing. He said nothing in
common with them, as he is a farmer
and tries to be a good citizen. The
people of Coffeyville, he said, did their
duty, and while he deplored the loss of
his brothers, he also sorrowed for the
citizens who gave up their lives.
George Roadwell and E. L. Wilcox,
brother and brother-in-law, Dick
Broadwell, called "Texas Jack," ar-
rived here today. They were greatly
surprised to hear of Dick being with
the gang. They had not heard from
him since last May, but had no idea he
was in the gang. They were greatly
surprised to hear of Dick being with
the gang. They had not heard from
him since last May, but had no idea he
was in the gang.

THE DEAD OUTLAWS.
The Identity of "Texas Jack" at Last
Established.
Allie Ogee Not the Fugitive Member of
the Gang—Relatives Mourn the
Bandits Killed at the Coffeyville
Fight.
By Telegraph to The Times.
COFFEYVILLE (Kan.), Oct. 7.—[By the
Associated Press.] Ben Dalton,
another of the outlaws, arrived here
this morning with his mother. He said
they had not seen Bob and the others
for two years and had no idea of what
they were doing. He said nothing in
common with them, as he is a farmer
and tries to be a good citizen. The
people of Coffeyville, he said, did their
duty, and while he deplored the loss of
his brothers, he also sorrowed for the
citizens who gave up their lives.
George Roadwell and E. L. Wilcox,
brother and brother-in-law, Dick
Broadwell, called "Texas Jack," ar-
rived here today. They were greatly
surprised to hear of Dick being with
the gang. They had not heard from
him since last May, but had no idea he
was in the gang. They were greatly
surprised to hear of Dick being with
the gang. They had not heard from
him since last May, but had no idea he
was in the gang.

GRAND OPERA HOUSE.
Under the Direction of A. Hayman.
McLain & Lehman, Managers.
TWO NIGHTS COMMENCING
FRIDAY, OCT. 14.
Jacob Litt and Thos. H. Davis' Transcontinental Farce Comedy
"YON KESON."
A distinct dramatic departure illustrated by
GUS HERGE.
Originator of Swedish dialect comedy, and a
grand company of players from the
New Park Theatre, New York.
A Carload of Special Scenery.
Seats on Sale Monday.
GRAND OPERA HOUSE.
Under the Direction of A. Hayman.
McLain & Lehman, Managers.
Wednesday, Evening, Oct. 12, at 8, and a Grand
Family and School Matinee at 3 p. m.
Farwell tour of the world-renowned
and original
"MRS. GWYNETH THUMB"
(Countess Magli).
And 15 Selected Artists in POOR SUPPORT.

Costly Errors Behind Pete McNabb Yesterday.

The Winning Colonels Drawing Big Crowds in Oakland.

Hornor Lets the Angels Down With Four Scattered Hits.

Prof. Jack Fanning Will Pitch for Oakland Today—Phil Knell Struck Out Thirteen Dukes, But Lost—Cleveland Wins.

By Telegram to the Times.
SACRAMENTO, Oct. 7.—[Special.] The weather was fine and a large crowd was at Piedmont today to witness a game that started out very fast. Hornor had little the best of McNabb in pitching, but Pete's support was poor.

In the first inning both sides went out in one, two, three, error. In the second a wild throw by Hulen gave Carroll a life. Brown forced him at second, Irwin singled, O'Neill hit to the fence.

Wilson was safe at first on McNabb's miff, and stole second, scoring on McCauley's double. Lyle, Baldwin and Hulen were easy outs. In the fifth both sides were easy outs. Wright singled for the Angels, but was left there.

In the sixth Brown was out to first, Irwin went to first on Stafford's error, and stole second. O'Neill sacrificed. Wilson gained first on an error by Stafford, Irwin scoring. Hornor got from first to third on an error by Stafford. McNabb drew out. The Angels were easy outs. In the seventh Hutchinson singled and stole second. Lange took three strikes and Carroll four balls. Brown singled and the bases were full, but Irwin forced Hutchinson and O'Neill flew out; no runs. Angels, nothing. In the eighth both sides hit very hard to the outfield, doubles and triplets being cut off by fast fielding of both sides. In the ninth the Colonels went out in one, two, three, error. McCauley singled and stole second, scoring on Glenavlin's single, but the latter was out stealing second, ending the game. Jack Fanning will pitch for Oakland tomorrow.

Following is the score:

OAKLAND.	AB.	R.	H.	ER.	PO.	A.	E.
McCauley, H.	5	1	1	0	4	1	0
McCauley, B.	4	1	1	0	0	0	0
Lange, C.	3	1	1	0	0	0	0
Carroll, R.	4	0	1	0	1	0	0
Brown, B.	5	0	1	0	0	0	0
Irwin, W.	4	0	2	0	4	2	0
O'Neill, B.	4	0	2	0	3	4	2
Wilson, C.	4	1	0	2	2	0	0
Hornor, P.	4	1	1	0	0	0	0
Total.	37	6	11	0	27	12	3

LOS ANGELES.	AB.	R.	H.	ER.	PO.	A.	E.
Stafford, C.	4	1	0	0	3	4	3
Wright, C.	3	1	0	0	1	1	1
Tredway, H.	1	0	0	0	1	0	0
McCauley, B.	4	1	1	0	2	0	0
Glenavlin, B.	4	0	2	0	4	2	0
Lyle, R.	4	0	0	1	0	0	0
Baldwin, C.	4	0	0	0	4	0	0
Hulen, B.	3	1	0	0	1	0	1
McNabb, P.	4	0	0	0	0	0	0
Total.	29	4	4	0	27	20	6

OAKLAND.	AB.	R.	H.	ER.	PO.	A.	E.
McCauley, H.	5	1	1	0	4	1	0
McCauley, B.	4	1	1	0	0	0	0
Lange, C.	3	1	1	0	0	0	0
Carroll, R.	4	0	1	0	1	0	0
Brown, B.	5	0	1	0	0	0	0
Irwin, W.	4	0	2	0	4	2	0
O'Neill, B.	4	0	2	0	3	4	2
Wilson, C.	4	1	0	2	2	0	0
Hornor, P.	4	1	1	0	0	0	0
Total.	37	6	11	0	27	12	3

LOS ANGELES.	AB.	R.	H.	ER.	PO.	A.	E.
Stafford, C.	4	1	0	0	3	4	3
Wright, C.	3	1	0	0	1	1	1
Tredway, H.	1	0	0	0	1	0	0
McCauley, B.	4	1	1	0	2	0	0
Glenavlin, B.	4	0	2	0	4	2	0
Lyle, R.	4	0	0	1	0	0	0
Baldwin, C.	4	0	0	0	4	0	0
Hulen, B.	3	1	0	0	1	0	1
McNabb, P.	4	0	0	0	0	0	0
Total.	29	4	4	0	27	20	6

OAKLAND.	AB.	R.	H.	ER.	PO.	A.	E.
McCauley, H.	5	1	1	0	4	1	0
McCauley, B.	4	1	1	0	0	0	0
Lange, C.	3	1	1	0	0	0	0
Carroll, R.	4	0	1	0	1	0	0
Brown, B.	5	0	1	0	0	0	0
Irwin, W.	4	0	2	0	4	2	0
O'Neill, B.	4	0	2	0	3	4	2
Wilson, C.	4	1	0	2	2	0	0
Hornor, P.	4	1	1	0	0	0	0
Total.	37	6	11	0	27	12	3

LOS ANGELES.	AB.	R.	H.	ER.	PO.	A.	E.
Stafford, C.	4	1	0	0	3	4	3
Wright, C.	3	1	0	0	1	1	1
Tredway, H.	1	0	0	0	1	0	0
McCauley, B.	4	1	1	0	2	0	0
Glenavlin, B.	4	0	2	0	4	2	0
Lyle, R.	4	0	0	1	0	0	0
Baldwin, C.	4	0	0	0	4	0	0
Hulen, B.	3	1	0	0	1	0	1
McNabb, P.	4	0	0	0	0	0	0
Total.	29	4	4	0	27	20	6

OAKLAND.	AB.	R.	H.	ER.	PO.	A.	E.
McCauley, H.	5	1	1	0	4	1	0
McCauley, B.	4	1	1	0	0	0	0
Lange, C.	3	1	1	0	0	0	0
Carroll, R.	4	0	1	0	1	0	0
Brown, B.	5	0	1	0	0	0	0
Irwin, W.	4	0	2	0	4	2	0
O'Neill, B.	4	0	2	0	3	4	2
Wilson, C.	4	1	0	2	2	0	0
Hornor, P.	4	1	1	0	0	0	0
Total.	37	6	11	0	27	12	3

LOS ANGELES.	AB.	R.	H.	ER.	PO.	A.	E.
Stafford, C.	4	1	0	0	3	4	3
Wright, C.	3	1	0	0	1	1	1
Tredway, H.	1	0	0	0	1	0	0
McCauley, B.	4	1	1	0	2	0	0
Glenavlin, B.	4	0	2	0	4	2	0
Lyle, R.	4	0	0	1	0	0	0
Baldwin, C.	4	0	0	0	4	0	0
Hulen, B.	3	1	0	0	1	0	1
McNabb, P.	4	0	0	0	0	0	0
Total.	29	4	4	0	27	20	6

OAKLAND.	AB.	R.	H.	ER.	PO.	A.	E.
McCauley, H.	5	1	1	0	4	1	0
McCauley, B.	4	1	1	0	0	0	0
Lange, C.	3	1	1	0	0	0	0
Carroll, R.	4	0	1	0	1	0	0
Brown, B.	5	0	1	0	0	0	0
Irwin, W.	4	0	2	0	4	2	0
O'Neill, B.	4	0	2	0	3	4	2
Wilson, C.	4	1	0	2	2	0	0
Hornor, P.	4	1	1	0	0	0	0
Total.	37	6	11	0	27	12	3

LOS ANGELES.	AB.	R.	H.	ER.	PO.	A.	E.
Stafford, C.	4	1	0	0	3	4	3
Wright, C.	3	1	0	0	1	1	1
Tredway, H.	1	0	0	0	1	0	0
McCauley, B.	4	1	1	0	2	0	0
Glenavlin, B.	4	0	2	0	4	2	0
Lyle, R.	4	0	0	1	0	0	0
Baldwin, C.	4	0	0	0	4	0	0
Hulen, B.	3	1	0	0	1	0	1
McNabb, P.	4	0	0	0	0	0	0
Total.	29	4	4	0	27	20	6

OAKLAND.	AB.	R.	H.	ER.	PO.	A.	E.
McCauley, H.	5	1	1	0	4	1	0
McCauley, B.	4	1	1	0	0	0	0
Lange, C.	3	1	1	0	0	0	0
Carroll, R.	4	0	1	0	1	0	0
Brown, B.	5	0	1	0	0	0	0
Irwin, W.	4	0	2	0	4	2	0
O'Neill, B.	4	0	2	0	3	4	2
Wilson, C.	4	1	0	2	2	0	0
Hornor, P.	4	1	1	0	0	0	0
Total.	37	6	11	0	27	12	3

LOS ANGELES.	AB.	R.	H.	ER.	PO.	A.	E.
Stafford, C.	4	1	0	0	3	4	3
Wright, C.	3	1	0	0	1	1	1
Tredway, H.	1	0	0	0	1	0	0
McCauley, B.	4	1	1	0	2	0	0
Glenavlin, B.	4	0	2	0	4	2	0
Lyle, R.	4	0	0	1	0	0	0
Baldwin, C.	4	0	0	0	4	0	0
Hulen, B.	3	1	0	0	1	0	1
McNabb, P.	4	0	0	0	0	0	0
Total.	29	4	4	0	27	20	6

OAKLAND.	AB.	R.	H.	ER.	PO.	A.	E.
McCauley, H.	5	1	1	0	4	1	0
McCauley, B.	4	1	1	0	0	0	0
Lange, C.	3	1	1	0	0	0	0
Carroll, R.	4	0	1	0	1	0	0
Brown, B.	5	0	1	0	0	0	0
Irwin, W.	4	0	2	0	4	2	0
O'Neill, B.	4	0	2	0	3	4	2
Wilson, C.	4	1	0	2	2	0	0
Hornor, P.	4	1	1	0	0	0	0
Total.	37	6	11	0	27	12	3

LOS ANGELES.	AB.	R.	H.	ER.	PO.	A.	E.
Stafford, C.	4	1	0	0	3	4	3
Wright, C.	3	1	0	0	1	1	1
Tredway, H.	1	0	0	0	1	0	0
McCauley, B.	4	1	1	0	2	0	0
Glenavlin, B.	4	0	2	0	4	2	0
Lyle, R.	4	0	0	1	0	0	0
Baldwin, C.	4	0	0	0	4	0	0
Hulen, B.	3	1	0	0	1	0	1
McNabb, P.	4	0	0	0	0	0	0
Total.	29	4	4	0	27	20	6

OAKLAND.	AB.	R.	H.	ER.	PO.	A.	E.
McCauley, H.	5	1	1	0	4	1	0
McCauley, B.	4	1	1	0	0	0	0
Lange, C.	3	1	1	0	0	0	0
Carroll, R.	4	0	1	0	1	0	0
Brown, B.	5	0	1	0	0	0	0
Irwin, W.	4	0	2	0	4	2	0
O'Neill, B.	4	0	2	0	3	4	2
Wilson, C.	4	1	0	2	2	0	0
Hornor, P.	4	1	1	0	0	0	0
Total.	37	6	11	0	27	12	3

LOS ANGELES.	AB.	R.	H.	ER.	PO.	A.	E.
Stafford, C.	4	1	0	0	3	4	3
Wright, C.	3	1	0	0	1	1	1
Tredway, H.	1	0	0	0	1	0	0
McCauley, B.	4	1	1	0	2	0	0
Glenavlin, B.	4	0	2	0	4	2	0
Lyle, R.	4	0	0	1	0	0	0
Baldwin, C.	4	0	0	0	4	0	0
Hulen, B.	3	1	0	0	1	0	1
McNabb, P.	4	0	0	0	0	0	0
Total.	29	4	4	0	27	20	6

OAKLAND.	AB.	R.	H.	ER.	PO.	A.	E.
McCauley, H.	5	1	1	0	4	1	0
McCauley, B.	4	1	1	0	0	0	0
Lange, C.	3	1	1	0	0	0	0
Carroll, R.	4	0	1	0	1	0	0
Brown, B.	5	0	1	0	0	0	0
Irwin, W.	4	0	2	0	4	2	0
O'Neill, B.	4	0	2	0	3	4	2
Wilson, C.	4	1	0	2	2	0	0
Hornor, P.	4	1	1	0	0	0	0
Total.	37	6	11	0	27	12	3

were hit, but Irwin forced Hutchinson and O'Neill flew out; no runs. Angel nothing. In the eighth both sides

THE TIMES-MIRROR COMPANY.

Los Angeles Daily Times, the Sunday Times, and the Saturday Times and Weekly Mirror.
 H. G. OTIS, President and General Manager.
 L. E. MORRIS, Vice-President.
 ALBERT M. FARLAND, Treasurer.
 C. C. ALLEN, Secretary.
 Office: Times Building.
 N. E. corner of First and Broadway.
 Telephone numbers: Editorial, 674; Business office, 29.
 Founded December 4, 1881.

The Los Angeles Times

OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.

VOLUME XXII. ELEVENTH YEAR. NUMBER 125.
 TERMS: By Mail, $9 a year; by carrier, 35 cents a month, or 20 cents a week. Sunday Times, $2 a year. Weekly, $1.30; 6 months, 75 cents.

Guaranteed Daily Circulation in September, 11,076 Copies, Exceeding the combined circulation of all other Los Angeles daily papers.

Entered at the Los Angeles Postoffice for transmission as second-class mail matter.

Liberty and Law?

Security to American homes?
 Protection to American industries?
 Encouragement to American capital?
 American commerce and honest money?
 A free ballot and a fair count?
 Rectitude and the Old Flag?

NATIONAL REPUBLICAN NOMINATIONS.

For President.....BENJ. HARRISON.
 For Vice-President.....WHITELAW REED

The Times is for sale at the Occidental Hotel news stand, San Francisco, price 5 cents per copy.

THE EYES OF THE WORLD

Upon Chicago, October 20, 21 and 22—
 Our Columbian Number.

On the 20th, 21st and 22d of October, at the World's Fair grounds in Chicago, will take place the imposing dedication exercises which are to usher in the quadricentennial anniversary of the discovery of America by immortal Christopher Columbus.

The Los Angeles Times has fixed upon this historic and glorious date for the issuance of a special illustrated COLUMBIAN NUMBER. It will consist of twenty-four pages, besides a four-page illustrated supplement, showing the California building, the other World's Fair buildings, and Los Angeles local views.

The city and county of Los Angeles and the other southern counties will be adequately described, their resources and advantages fully depicted. Brilliant and graphic reports from the center of interest, Chicago, will be published. There will be an elaborate map description of the buildings and grounds and of the imposing preparations for 1893; also a luminous special telegraphic report of the opening dedication exercises on the 20th inst. A second edition will contain also the impressive proceedings, on the 21st, of what will doubtless prove one of the most notable gatherings in the history of America.

Large editions of the COLUMBIAN NUMBER will be printed. Applications for space, for descriptive articles with illustrations, and for copies in quantities continue to be made at the counting-room and by mail.

For a partial mention of special features see large advertisement.

AMUSEMENTS TONIGHT.

AT THE OPERAHOUSE—The Corner Grocery. (Matinee.)

A POPULAR combine: Rum and gum.

The football season is coming in with a rush.

The Dalton boys—but there are no Dalton boys.

We throw up our hands to Mr. Spears of Coffeyville.

Has anybody claimed that those late Dalton boys were doped?

WEAVER probably thinks those eggs were kept over from before he was.

This will probably settle the question as to who is the Nancy Hanks of California's talk track.

GEORGIA has gone Democratic! Now, you Republicans, put that in your pipes and see how you like it!

The San José Baseball Club has won a game. Some of the boys must have forgotten the combination.

WHAT was that about the Charlesons scraping on a bar in San Diego harbor? Out upon the campaign liar!

The umbrella bids fair to assume the place recently occupied by the tennis blazer and the "yaller" shoe.

WHEN all the moons of Jupiter get full at once there must be a jag in the neighborhood worth witnessing.

THERE will be an intellectual boss trot at Turnverein Hall tonight. G'lang there, Stephen! Fly, Morris fly!

"Peck must show up or shut up," says the Troy Press. Well, now that he has shown up, how do you like it?

AND the Daltons ride on their raids no more. Gone to meet the Ruggles boys and Mr. Smith of Shasta county.

The boiler-plate editor must usually do his scissoring with a hoe, judging by the quality of the stuff he gets out.

PERHAPS if love wasn't blind he wouldn't be pictured as going around with his "bow'n' arer," without any clothes on.

THE straw-vote man has probably been killed off. Please observe, will you, what a pleasant thing it is to see the cuss removed!

THE business end of the campaign is right here, but if it has exposed its stinger to the public view we have failed to notice it.

The people back in New York are wearing out their old clothes by claiming that their good ones have been ruined by fumigation.

ment of about 600 students, between one-third and one-quarter of whom are ladies. One of the first and most important pieces of business which engaged the attention of the students was the adoption of a college yell. They met in the chapel and were presided over by the professor of physical culture while they tried their voices on the various yells proposed. The one which found most favor and was adopted tentatively runs in this wise:

Chica-go! Chica-go! Chica-go!
 Go it Chica-go! Chica-go!
 Go it Chica-go!

A Telling Report.

FREE-TRADE SLAVERY ABROAD

EXPOSED.
 A THRILLING ACCOUNT OF THE CONDITION OF WORKING PEOPLE IN FREE-TRADE ENGLAND.

NATHANIEL M'KAY'S TRIP ABROAD AND WHAT HE SAW—NO ONE CAN DENT THE FACTS PRESENTED.

Special report to appear in THE TIMES of Tuesday, October 11, with striking illustrations.

Messrs. ESTEE and White will scrap this evening at early candle-light. The ring, the buckets, and the sponges are in place. There is sawdust on the floor, in which the gore will be sopped up, and everything points to a regular time of it. On, ye braves, and may the worst man get licked!

EVERY time Grover goes up to New York a delegation of citizens has to go down to escort him into town. You would think a fellow as big as the Stuffed Mugwump would be able to make the trip all by his lonesome self. What are his coaches afraid of?

JOHN PHILIP SOUSA is getting that in suffering phiz of his in the boiler-plate literature sent out from the East, but nobody has advised us what we have ever done to the boiler-plate. The next thing we know somebody will be wanting to name a peak "Sousa."

GROVER threw the free-trade plank overboard, and poor old Hank Waterston must be blindly sputtering and grabbing at it in rage. The fat prophet ought not to have treated Henry that way, after the latter's swallowing that awful dose at Chicago.

BETWEEN that riotous sore throat with which Bourke Cockran cannot roar very much for Grover and Gen. Dan Sickles' unruly crutch, the fat mugwump of Buzzards' Bay is having several very bad quarters of an hour just about now.

POP DANA is fretting himself almost to death trying to shove that Force Bill bugaboo into view as an issue. The old man should get onto Cleveland's letter where he talks about the tariff—there's where there's richness for Charles A.

ADVISES from Kansas lead to the conclusion that the unskipped Simpson, familiarly called Jerry for short, will fail to be reflected, and in future will air his undraped ankles over the soil of blood without let or hindrance.

THE Democratic National Committee vouchsafes to telegraph that "all anxiety about the State of New York is allayed." Then why don't Grover sit down and quit walking the floor nights and keeping us all awake.

IT is fair to say that Bourke Cockran was a sore throat and not saying a word is a better orator than a lot of fellows we know of who never know when to let up. Now, there is one Olin Wellborn for instance!

THE cholera horror seems a pleasant thing to look forward to when one thinks of Harriet Monroe's hogwash ode that cost this blessed country one thousand dollars.

How much is it going to cost us next year to write the word "Chicago"? Will the World's Fair directors please issue a rate sheet for these sort of things.

ALLAN KELLEY found Evans and Sontag, but he didn't bring 'em in, as he did that grizzly bear one time. But that is another story, as the unspeakable Kipling has it.

ANY one reading a New York paper cannot but conclude that the people of that town are more afraid of the trolley-rail than they are of the cholera.

THE cholera wiggler no longer goes in swimming in the harbor of New York.

THE SAGE OF B. B. (New York Press.)

Among the iron workers of free trade England, and they are perhaps the most prosperous of all that country's workmen, own their own homes. 2 1/2 per cent.

Among the iron workers of the protected United States 20 per cent.

own their own homes. These facts are established by the investigations of United States Labor Commissioner Carroll D. Wright.

Protection is the safeguard of the American home.

Who grooms the Democratic nag. Who speaks him on the track each day. Who thinks he'll surely win the race? The Sage of Buzzard's Bay.

CHORUS.
 The Sage of Buzzard's Bay,
 The Sage of Buzzard's Bay,
 We'll leave him puffing far behind,
 On next election day.

Who's fishing for the people's votes. With free-trade bait prepared each day. Who'll catch a tartar when he throws? On next election day?

CHORUS.
 The Sage of Buzzard's Bay,
 The Sage of Buzzard's Bay,
 We'll break his tackle, sink his boat
 On next election day.

Who sits astride the tariff fence. And rolls around in every way. Who talks in language vague and big? The Sage of Buzzard's Bay.

CHORUS.
 The Sage of Buzzard's Bay,
 The Sage of Buzzard's Bay,
 We'll change his place from fence to ditch
 On next election day.

Who's fishing for the people's votes. With free-trade bait prepared each day. Who'll catch a tartar when he throws? On next election day?

CHORUS.
 The Sage of Buzzard's Bay,
 The Sage of Buzzard's Bay,
 We'll break his tackle, sink his boat
 On next election day.

Who sits astride the tariff fence. And rolls around in every way. Who talks in language vague and big? The Sage of Buzzard's Bay.

CHORUS.
 The Sage of Buzzard's Bay,
 The Sage of Buzzard's Bay,
 We'll change his place from fence to ditch
 On next election day.

Who's fishing for the people's votes. With free-trade bait prepared each day. Who'll catch a tartar when he throws? On next election day?

CHORUS.
 The Sage of Buzzard's Bay,
 The Sage of Buzzard's Bay,
 We'll break his tackle, sink his boat
 On next election day.

Who sits astride the tariff fence. And rolls around in every way. Who talks in language vague and big? The Sage of Buzzard's Bay.

CHORUS.
 The Sage of Buzzard's Bay,
 The Sage of Buzzard's Bay,
 We'll change his place from fence to ditch
 On next election day.

Who's fishing for the people's votes. With free-trade bait prepared each day. Who'll catch a tartar when he throws? On next election day?

CHORUS.
 The Sage of Buzzard's Bay,
 The Sage of Buzzard's Bay,
 We'll break his tackle, sink his boat
 On next election day.

AMUSEMENTS.

AT THE PLAYHOUSES.

GRAND OPERAHOUSE—Daniel Sully and his company kept the audience at the Grand last night roaring with laughter for two hours and a half, in the excruciatingly laughable creation, Daddy Noddy. The play is not a new one in its kind, but it is a new one in its execution, and it is full of those uproarious comedy that warms the cockles of the heart, has some touches of pathos that are true to life, and a few scenes that are so strikingly dramatic as to make the audience sustained and unbroken enjoyment.

Mr. Sully's easy, natural manner makes his stage work decidedly pleasing and effective, and his dances and songs seem entirely proper adjuncts of the character of "Michael Noddy," a young man who is a tender-hearted fellow who loves his wife and has ten children and his lot of a grandchild, who is a little heart-broken and a little sad and smothered in pain with a "chuckle." The company appeared to excellent advantage throughout the play, and the evening was a most successful one.

"Frederick Richter" did some very clever character playing and his singing and dancing were of a high order. The company appeared to excellent advantage throughout the play, and the evening was a most successful one.

Mr. Sully's easy, natural manner makes his stage work decidedly pleasing and effective, and his dances and songs seem entirely proper adjuncts of the character of "Michael Noddy," a young man who is a tender-hearted fellow who loves his wife and has ten children and his lot of a grandchild, who is a little heart-broken and a little sad and smothered in pain with a "chuckle." The company appeared to excellent advantage throughout the play, and the evening was a most successful one.

Mr. Sully's easy, natural manner makes his stage work decidedly pleasing and effective, and his dances and songs seem entirely proper adjuncts of the character of "Michael Noddy," a young man who is a tender-hearted fellow who loves his wife and has ten children and his lot of a grandchild, who is a little heart-broken and a little sad and smothered in pain with a "chuckle." The company appeared to excellent advantage throughout the play, and the evening was a most successful one.

Mr. Sully's easy, natural manner makes his stage work decidedly pleasing and effective, and his dances and songs seem entirely proper adjuncts of the character of "Michael Noddy," a young man who is a tender-hearted fellow who loves his wife and has ten children and his lot of a grandchild, who is a little heart-broken and a little sad and smothered in pain with a "chuckle." The company appeared to excellent advantage throughout the play, and the evening was a most successful one.

Mr. Sully's easy, natural manner makes his stage work decidedly pleasing and effective, and his dances and songs seem entirely proper adjuncts of the character of "Michael Noddy," a young man who is a tender-hearted fellow who loves his wife and has ten children and his lot of a grandchild, who is a little heart-broken and a little sad and smothered in pain with a "chuckle." The company appeared to excellent advantage throughout the play, and the evening was a most successful one.

Mr. Sully's easy, natural manner makes his stage work decidedly pleasing and effective, and his dances and songs seem entirely proper adjuncts of the character of "Michael Noddy," a young man who is a tender-hearted fellow who loves his wife and has ten children and his lot of a grandchild, who is a little heart-broken and a little sad and smothered in pain with a "chuckle." The company appeared to excellent advantage throughout the play, and the evening was a most successful one.

Mr. Sully's easy, natural manner makes his stage work decidedly pleasing and effective, and his dances and songs seem entirely proper adjuncts of the character of "Michael Noddy," a young man who is a tender-hearted fellow who loves his wife and has ten children and his lot of a grandchild, who is a little heart-broken and a little sad and smothered in pain with a "chuckle." The company appeared to excellent advantage throughout the play, and the evening was a most successful one.

Mr. Sully's easy, natural manner makes his stage work decidedly pleasing and effective, and his dances and songs seem entirely proper adjuncts of the character of "Michael Noddy," a young man who is a tender-hearted fellow who loves his wife and has ten children and his lot of a grandchild, who is a little heart-broken and a little sad and smothered in pain with a "chuckle." The company appeared to excellent advantage throughout the play, and the evening was a most successful one.

Mr. Sully's easy, natural manner makes his stage work decidedly pleasing and effective, and his dances and songs seem entirely proper adjuncts of the character of "Michael Noddy," a young man who is a tender-hearted fellow who loves his wife and has ten children and his lot of a grandchild, who is a little heart-broken and a little sad and smothered in pain with a "chuckle." The company appeared to excellent advantage throughout the play, and the evening was a most successful one.

Mr. Sully's easy, natural manner makes his stage work decidedly pleasing and effective, and his dances and songs seem entirely proper adjuncts of the character of "Michael Noddy," a young man who is a tender-hearted fellow who loves his wife and has ten children and his lot of a grandchild, who is a little heart-broken and a little sad and smothered in pain with a "chuckle." The company appeared to excellent advantage throughout the play, and the evening was a most successful one.

Mr. Sully's easy, natural manner makes his stage work decidedly pleasing and effective, and his dances and songs seem entirely proper adjuncts of the character of "Michael Noddy," a young man who is a tender-hearted fellow who loves his wife and has ten children and his lot of a grandchild, who is a little heart-broken and a little sad and smothered in pain with a "chuckle." The company appeared to excellent advantage throughout the play, and the evening was a most successful one.

Mr. Sully's easy, natural manner makes his stage work decidedly pleasing and effective, and his dances and songs seem entirely proper adjuncts of the character of "Michael Noddy," a young man who is a tender-hearted fellow who loves his wife and has ten children and his lot of a grandchild, who is a little heart-broken and a little sad and smothered in pain with a "chuckle." The company appeared to excellent advantage throughout the play, and the evening was a most successful one.

Mr. Sully's easy, natural manner makes his stage work decidedly pleasing and effective, and his dances and songs seem entirely proper adjuncts of the character of "Michael Noddy," a young man who is a tender-hearted fellow who loves his wife and has ten children and his lot of a grandchild, who is a little heart-broken and a little sad and smothered in pain with a "chuckle." The company appeared to excellent advantage throughout the play, and the evening was a most successful one.

Mr. Sully's easy, natural manner makes his stage work decidedly pleasing and effective, and his dances and songs seem entirely proper adjuncts of the character of "Michael Noddy," a young man who is a tender-hearted fellow who loves his wife and has ten children and his lot of a grandchild, who is a little heart-broken and a little sad and smothered in pain with a "chuckle." The company appeared to excellent advantage throughout the play, and the evening was a most successful one.

Mr. Sully's easy, natural manner makes his stage work decidedly pleasing and effective, and his dances and songs seem entirely proper adjuncts of the character of "Michael Noddy," a young man who is a tender-hearted fellow who loves his wife and has ten children and his lot of a grandchild, who is a little heart-broken and a little sad and smothered in pain with a "chuckle." The company appeared to excellent advantage throughout the play, and the evening was a most successful one.

Mr. Sully's easy, natural manner makes his stage work decidedly pleasing and effective, and his dances and songs seem entirely proper adjuncts of the character of "Michael Noddy," a young man who is a tender-hearted fellow who loves his wife and has ten children and his lot of a grandchild, who is a little heart-broken and a little sad and smothered in pain with a "chuckle." The company appeared to excellent advantage throughout the play, and the evening was a most successful one.

Mr. Sully's easy, natural manner makes his stage work decidedly pleasing and effective, and his dances and songs seem entirely proper adjuncts of the character of "Michael Noddy," a young man who is a tender-hearted fellow who loves his wife and has ten children and his lot of a grandchild, who is a little heart-broken and a little sad and smothered in pain with a "chuckle." The company appeared to excellent advantage throughout the play, and the evening was a most successful one.

Mr. Sully's easy, natural manner makes his stage work decidedly pleasing and effective, and his dances and songs seem entirely proper adjuncts of the character of "Michael Noddy," a young man who is a tender-hearted fellow who loves his wife and has ten children and his lot of a grandchild, who is a little heart-broken and a little sad and smothered in pain with a "chuckle." The company appeared to excellent advantage throughout the play, and the evening was a most successful one.

Mr. Sully's easy, natural manner makes his stage work decidedly pleasing and effective, and his dances and songs seem entirely proper adjuncts of the character of "Michael Noddy," a young man who is a tender-hearted fellow who loves his wife and has ten children and his lot of a grandchild, who is a little heart-broken and a little sad and smothered in pain with a "chuckle." The company appeared to excellent advantage throughout the play, and the evening was a most successful one.

Mr. Sully's easy, natural manner makes his stage work decidedly pleasing and effective, and his dances and songs seem entirely proper adjuncts of the character of "Michael Noddy," a young man who is a tender-hearted fellow who loves his wife and has ten children and his lot of a grandchild, who is a little heart-broken and a little sad and smothered in pain with a "chuckle." The company appeared to excellent advantage throughout the play, and the evening was a most successful one.

Mr. Sully's easy, natural manner makes his stage work decidedly pleasing and effective, and his dances and songs seem entirely proper adjuncts of the character of "Michael Noddy," a young man who is a tender-hearted fellow who loves his wife and has ten children and his lot of a grandchild, who is a little heart-broken and a little sad and smothered in pain with a "chuckle." The company appeared to excellent advantage throughout the play, and the evening was a most successful one.

Mr. Sully's easy, natural manner makes his stage work decidedly pleasing and effective, and his dances and songs seem entirely proper adjuncts of the character of "Michael Noddy," a young man who is a tender-hearted fellow who loves his wife and has ten children and his lot of a grandchild, who is a little heart-broken and a little sad and smothered in pain with a "chuckle." The company appeared to excellent advantage throughout the play, and the evening was a most successful one.

Mr. Sully's easy, natural manner makes his stage work decidedly pleasing and effective, and his dances and songs seem entirely proper adjuncts of the character of "Michael Noddy," a young man who is a tender-hearted fellow who loves his wife and has ten children and his lot of a grandchild, who is a little heart-broken and a little sad and smothered in pain with a "chuckle." The company appeared to excellent advantage throughout the play, and the evening was a most successful one.

Mr. Sully's easy, natural manner makes his stage work decidedly pleasing and effective, and his dances and songs seem entirely proper adjuncts of the character of "Michael Noddy," a young man who is a tender-hearted fellow who loves his wife and has ten children and his lot of a grandchild, who is a little heart-broken and a little sad and smothered in pain with a "chuckle." The company appeared to excellent advantage throughout the play, and the evening was a most successful one.

Mr. Sully's easy, natural manner makes his stage work decidedly pleasing and effective, and his dances and songs seem entirely proper adjuncts of the character of "Michael Noddy," a young man who is a tender-hearted fellow who loves his wife and has ten children and his lot of a grandchild, who is a little heart-broken and a little sad and smothered in pain with a "chuckle." The company appeared to excellent advantage throughout the play, and the evening was a most successful one.

Mr. Sully's easy, natural manner makes his stage work decidedly pleasing and effective, and his dances and songs seem entirely proper adjuncts of the character of "Michael Noddy," a young man who is a tender-hearted fellow who loves his wife and has ten children and his lot of a grandchild, who is a little heart-broken and a little sad and smothered in pain with a "chuckle." The company appeared to excellent advantage throughout the play, and the evening was a most successful one.

Mr. Sully's easy, natural manner makes his stage work decidedly pleasing and effective, and his dances and songs seem entirely proper adjuncts of the character of "Michael Noddy," a young man who is a tender-hearted fellow who loves his wife and has ten children and his lot of a grandchild, who is a little heart-broken and a little sad and smothered in pain with a "chuckle." The company appeared to excellent advantage throughout the play, and the evening was a most successful one.

Mr. Sully's easy, natural manner makes his stage work decidedly pleasing and effective, and his dances and songs seem entirely proper adjuncts of the character of "Michael Noddy," a young man who is a tender-hearted fellow who loves his wife and has ten children and his lot of a grandchild, who is a little heart-broken and a little sad and smothered in pain with a "chuckle." The company appeared to excellent advantage throughout the play, and the evening was a most successful one.

Mr. Sully's easy, natural manner makes his stage work decidedly pleasing and effective, and his dances and songs seem entirely proper adjuncts of the character of "Michael Noddy," a young man who is a tender-hearted fellow who loves his wife and has ten children and his lot of a grandchild, who is a little heart-broken and a little sad and smothered in pain with a "chuckle." The company appeared to excellent advantage throughout the play, and the evening was a most successful one.

Mr. Sully's easy, natural manner makes his stage work decidedly pleasing and effective, and his dances and songs seem entirely proper adjuncts of the character of "Michael Noddy," a young man who is a tender-hearted fellow who loves his wife and has ten children and his lot of a grandchild, who is a little heart-broken and a little sad and smothered in pain with a "chuckle." The company appeared to excellent advantage throughout the play, and the evening was a most successful one.

Mr. Sully's easy, natural manner makes his stage work decidedly pleasing and effective, and his dances and songs seem entirely proper adjuncts of the character of "Michael Noddy," a young man who is a tender-hearted fellow who loves his wife and has ten children and his lot of a grandchild, who is a little heart-broken and a little sad and smothered in pain with a "chuckle." The company appeared to excellent advantage throughout the play, and the evening was a most successful one.

Mr. Sully's easy, natural manner makes his stage work decidedly pleasing and effective, and his dances and songs seem entirely proper adjuncts of the character of "Michael Noddy," a young man who is a tender-hearted fellow who loves his wife and has ten children and his lot of a grandchild, who is a little heart-broken and a little sad and smothered in pain with a "chuckle." The company appeared to excellent advantage throughout the play, and the evening was a most successful one.

Mr. Sully's easy, natural manner makes his stage work decidedly pleasing and effective, and his dances and songs seem entirely proper adjuncts of the character of "Michael Noddy," a young man who is a tender-hearted fellow who loves his wife and has ten children and his lot of a grandchild, who is a little heart-broken and a little sad and smothered in pain with a "chuckle." The company appeared to excellent advantage throughout the play, and the evening was a most successful one.

Mr. Sully's easy, natural manner makes his stage work decidedly pleasing and effective, and his dances and songs seem entirely proper adjuncts of the character of "Michael Noddy," a young man who is a tender-hearted fellow who loves his wife and has ten children and his lot of a grandchild, who is a little heart-broken and a little sad and smothered in pain with a "chuckle." The company appeared to excellent advantage throughout the play, and the evening was a most successful one.

Mr. Sully's easy, natural manner makes his stage work decidedly pleasing and effective, and his dances and songs seem entirely proper adjuncts of the character of "Michael Noddy," a young man who is a tender-hearted fellow who loves his wife and has ten children and his lot of a grandchild, who is a little heart-broken and a little sad and smothered in pain with a "chuckle." The company appeared to excellent advantage throughout the play, and the evening was a most successful one.

Mr. Sully's easy, natural manner makes his stage work decidedly pleasing and effective, and his dances and songs seem entirely proper adjuncts of the character of "Michael Noddy," a young man who is a tender-hearted fellow who loves his wife and has ten children and his lot of a grandchild, who is a little heart-broken and a little sad and smothered in pain with a "chuckle." The company appeared to excellent advantage throughout the play, and the evening was a most successful one.

Mr. Sully's easy, natural manner makes his stage work decidedly pleasing and effective, and his dances and songs seem entirely proper adjuncts of the character of "Michael Noddy," a young man who is a tender-hearted fellow who loves his wife and has ten children and his lot of a grandchild, who is a little heart-broken and a little sad and smothered in pain with a "chuckle." The company appeared to excellent advantage throughout the play, and the evening was a most successful one.

Mr. Sully's easy, natural manner makes his stage work decidedly pleasing and effective, and his dances and songs seem entirely proper adjuncts of the character of "Michael Noddy," a young man who is a tender-hearted fellow who loves his wife and has ten children and his lot of a grandchild, who is a little heart-broken and a little sad and smothered in pain with a "chuckle." The company appeared to excellent advantage throughout the play, and the evening was a most successful one.

Mr. Sully's easy, natural manner makes his stage work decidedly pleasing and effective, and his dances and songs seem entirely proper adjuncts of the character of "Michael Noddy," a young man who is a tender-hearted fellow who loves his wife and has ten children and his lot of a grandchild, who is a little heart-broken and a little sad and smothered in pain with a "chuckle." The company appeared to excellent advantage throughout the play, and the evening was a most successful one.

Mr. Sully's easy, natural manner makes his stage work decidedly pleasing and effective, and his dances and songs seem entirely proper adjuncts of the character of "Michael Noddy," a young man who is a tender-hearted fellow who loves his wife and has ten children and his lot of a grandchild, who is a little heart-broken and a little sad and smothered in pain with a "chuckle." The company appeared to excellent advantage throughout the play, and the evening was a most successful one.

Mr. Sully's easy, natural manner makes his stage work decidedly pleasing and effective, and his dances and songs seem entirely proper adjuncts of the character of "Michael Noddy," a young man who is a tender-hearted fellow who loves his wife and has ten children and his lot of a grandchild, who is a little heart-broken and a little sad and smothered in pain with a "chuckle." The company appeared to excellent advantage throughout the play, and the evening was a most successful one.

FIFTH DAY'S RACES.

Fully Five Thousand People at Agricultural Park.

The Gentleman's Race the Main Feature of the Programme.

Won by Ben Butler in Straight Heats, Driven by Billy Llewellyn.

The Directors' Purse Won by Waif, the President's Purse by Capt. Al, and the Hurdle Race by Sheila—Some Fast Work.

Fully 5000 people were at Agricultural Park yesterday to witness the fifth days programme of the fair race meeting.

Although, on account of the track being a trifle slow, the racing was not of a sensational nature as regards time, the four events on the programme were all hotly contested, and a very enjoyable afternoon's sport was provided for the entertainment of the spectators.

THE DIRECTOR'S PURSE.

The Directors' Purse of $400, for all ages, three-eighths of a mile and repeat. The President's Purse by Capt. Al, and the Hurdle Race by Sheila

THE COURTS.

Trial of Another Damage Suit Commenced.

Mrs. Wilson Wants $4000 for the Destruction of Her Furniture.

A Lady Who Seriously Objected to Telling Her Age.

And Read Learned Counsel a Short but Pointed Lecture on Etiquette—A Young Man Adjudged Incompetent—Divorce.

In Judge Clark's department of the Superior Court the case of Mrs. M. Wilson against the California Central Railway Company, to recover an amount of $4000 for furniture destroyed by fire while in the custody of the company named, occupied much of the time yesterday and will be continued on Monday morning. It appears in the complaint submitted that the complaining witness, during boom days, resided at different times in Chicago, and that in changing her residence from that place to this city she shipped, via the defendant's railway, a quantity of furniture and household goods of every description, embracing a number of valuable oil paintings and rare stuffed birds of great value. The furniture arrived in advance of Mrs. Wilson, who was detained in Chicago by reason of illness, and in the meantime was stored in the freight depot of the defendants. A letter written by the officials of the road from this point showed the safe arrival of the furniture and also stated that it had been stored as quoted, was subsequently received by the plaintiff at Chicago, but when she arrived here from the East the freight depot had been burned down and the furniture destroyed with it. Upon seeking remuneration for her loss she was finally informed by the company's attorney that if she wanted anything she must sue for it, which she has done accordingly. "Now ask the jury to award her damages in the above amount."

Considerable merriment was created in court when Mrs. Cicotte, the daughter of Mrs. Wilson, was put on the stand. She stated substantially, at the instigation of the attorneys for the prosecution, the substance of the complaint as already given in a very cool and prepossessing way, but when the defense began their cross-examination her memory proved decidedly defective. When Judge Brunson put questions as to the time of her marriage and former employment in a railroad office East she wasn't able to remember the slightest connecting circumstance.

"How old are you, Mrs. Cicotte?" asked Judge Brunson.

"I would rather not say," was the reply.

"I asked you how old you are?" reiterated the counsel for the defense.

"Well, I won't tell, as I don't think any lady need tell her age, nor any gentleman ask her to do so," came in angry intonations.

The court smiled broadly, the jury tittered, Judge Brunson looked "sat upon" and the case was continued.

COMMITTED TO THE ASYLUM.

For some time past C. D. Hall, a young man 24 years of age, who has resided with his parents in the southern portion of the city, has been acting in a most singular manner, walking about without noticing even his father or mother, at times, nor anyone else about the lodging-house where the family stopped. He could not sleep at night and labored under the hallucination that there was a conspiracy about to kill him. As he has been getting constantly worse, his parents have dispaired of his recovery, and were forced to come to the unwelcome conclusion that he was really insane. The afflicted youth was brought into Judge Smith's court yesterday and examined by Drs. Colburn and Cowles, and being adjudged insane was committed to the Napa asylum.

Court Notes.

An information was filed yesterday in the criminal department by the District Attorney, charging G. Horton with embezzling two horses, a wagon and a set of double harness belonging to A. W. Andrews. Arraignment on the charge is set for Monday.

By mutual consent, the case of B. Kiel vs. A. H. Tufts, to quiet title to certain lots in Pomona, has been continued by Judge Wade until the 14th.

Five days have been allowed in the damage suit of Lacy vs. Porter, to file motion for a new trial in Department Three.

The old water troubles of the Azusa District are represented in court by the suit of the San José Ranch Company vs. the Azusa Ditch and Irrigation Company, to set aside or annul the sale of certain shares of water stock. Judge McKinley has the case in hand.

Judge Shaw yesterday issued an order in the insolvency case of D. W. Hanna, setting apart personal property for the use of creditors.

In Department Five Mrs. Sepulveda has gained a judgment against Beatty et al. for $80, due on wages as a nurse in the defendant's family.

John Duert, a native of Germany, became a full-fledged citizen of the United States yesterday by producing the necessary proofs before Judge Shaw.

In the Probate Court M. L. Wicks was yesterday granted letters of guardianship of Edward W. Butler and Percy Longley Wicks, upon a bond of $1000 in each case, by Judge Clark.

In the forcible case of McConnell vs. Wood, Judge Van Dyke has ordered judgment for plaintiff, with ten days' stay of proceedings.

The hearing of the charge against the colored politician, "Maj." Twine, has been postponed for one week and the prisoner's bail fixed at $5000. He was unable to raise the necessary amount last evening and spent the night in the County Jail.

Charles Gaugen has sworn to a complaint charging William Shoeder with perjury. The complaint sets forth that in certifying to property possessed before a notary in the application for a decree of insolvency that Shoeder made false statements under oath, and that he concealed from public knowledge the possession of horses, promissory notes due him and money on deposit in a bank.

The jury in the case of Mollie Laferre vs. the Southern Pacific Railway Company returned a verdict yesterday afternoon in the United States Circuit Court awarding the plaintiff $5000 damages. Divorce proceedings have been commenced by Elizabeth Guirardo vs. R. G. Guirardo, and Mattie C. Dodson vs. S. S. Dodson.

Today's Calendar.

DEPARTMENT ONE—Judge Smith.

People vs. Sing Lung; People vs. Bedwell; hearings on appeal.

DEPARTMENT THREE—Judge Wade.

Los Angeles City Water Company vs. Hubbell; injunction proceedings.

DEPARTMENT FIVE—Judge Shaw.

Monroe vs. Foster; for rent and restitution.

Great Reductions in Rates

Hotel del Coronado

America's Peerless Seaside Resort

As a summer resort it is without a rival. Its glorious climate, superior facilities, with its many other sports and amusements combined with every home comfort make this hotel in all respects a peerless resort.

Under a glass roof, are the finest and most elegant swimming tanks, with every convenience attached. Constant streams of hot and cold water flow into the tanks. These baths are very strengthening.

On a splendid, hard, sandy beach, with more regular breakers, water ten degrees warmer than at Santa Monica, and no undertow. Barracudas and Spanish Mackerel fishing boats are kept at the hotel. Tourists should remember that the Hotel del Coronado is open all the year, and that the other winter resorts close instead of going south they will find the most delightful weather and every attraction at the Coronado.

ROUND-TRIP TICKETS

From Los Angeles, Pasadena, Pomona, San Bernardino, Colton, Riverside, Redlands, Orange, Anaheim and Santa Ana, all $21.00, including one week's board in $3.00 or $3.50 room. Privilege of staying as long as desired. T. D. YEOMANS, Agent, Los Angeles, 123 N. Spring St. Tickets for sale at Santa Fe office, 123 N. Spring St. Depot at all other points. Local R. R. Agents. Pacific Mail Steamers call four times monthly, and tourists can go east via San Francisco or Panama.

E. S. BABCOCK, Manager Hotel del Coronado.

UNCLE BILLY CANED.

A Graceful Compliment to the Veteran Tariff Orator.

Uncle Billy Williams, the veteran and invincible Republican tariff speaker, whose eloquence and logic have become more familiar to the people of the State during this campaign than ever before, was caned and fêted last evening in the parlors of the Nadeau Hotel by a few of his numerous friends, who had gathered to show their regard for Mr. Williams' high qualities in a social manner most befitting the time and occasion.

After the parlors had become well filled E. H. Hutchinson arose, and taking in his hand from its hiding place a handsome gold-headed cane, stepped into the center of the room and made a brief speech of presentation, full of expressions of the sincere admiration which he, and Republicans everywhere, felt for the great and patriotic work which Mr. Williams was doing for the party, and begged in closing to be allowed to present him with the cane as a token of remembrance of the occasion.

The response of Uncle Billy was in his characteristic style of humor and feeling, and in return he handed to Mr. Hutchinson his old stick, by which he might be as long remembered.

The gathering then fell into an enjoyable discussion of cigars and reminiscences, breaking up finally with hearty wishes of long life and happiness to Uncle Billy and the Republican party. There were present: Hon. Billy Williams, E. H. Hutchinson, Judge Wade, S. K. Lindley, W. B. Akey, G. W. Van Alstine, N. E. Davison, J. H. Shoulers, C. D. Platt, E. E. Maxwell, W. S. Moore, George Arnold, J. Frankfield, T. J. Weidon, M. J. Wright, R. B. Carpenter, J. A. Kelley, Maj. E. W. Jones.

CON STIPATION.

Afflicts half the American people yet there is only one preparation of Sarsaparilla that acts on the bowels and reaches this important trouble, and that is Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla. It relieves it in 24 hours, and an occasional dose prevents return. We refer, by permission, to C. E. Elkington, 125 Locust Avenue, San Francisco; J. H. Brown, Potomac, Cal.; H. S. Wynn, Geary Court, S.F., and hundreds of others who have used it in constipation. One letter is a sample of hundreds. Elkington writes: "I have been for years subject to bilious headaches and constipation. Have been so bad for a year back have had to take a physic every other night or else I would have a headache. One bottle of J. V. S. put me in splendid shape. It positively controls constipation."

JOY'S Vegetable Sarsaparilla

As J. V. S. is positively the only Sarsaparilla compounded to control constipation, insist on Joy's and don't be talked into taking any other.

DEBATE ON THE TARIFF

—BY—

Hon. M. M. ESTEE

—AND—

Hon. S. M. WHITE,

—AT—

TURNVEREIN HALL,

—ON—

SATURDAY EVENING, OCT. 8,

At 8 O'clock.

COL. J. J. AYERS WILL PRESIDE.

F. H. MEYERS,

Chairman Republican State Central Com.

MAX POPPER,

Chairman Democratic State Central Com.

C. F. BASSNETT,

Secretary Republican State Central Com.

J. P. BROY,

Secretary Democratic State Central Com.

PUBLIC SALE!

In pursuance of an order of the Superior Court of Los Angeles County, I will sell at PUBLIC AUCTION,

At 10 o'clock sharp, on SATURDAY, OCT. 8,

in front of the Court House, at THE FAIR GLOUNES, for cash to the highest bidder, the standard bred filly, Woodnymph, the property of the estate of J. J. Durie.

Woodnymph was bred by Mr. J. Willets, and sold to Mr. J. J. Durie for $200 when 16 months old.

PEDIGREE—Woodnymph, a black filly, 16 hands high, 28 months old, was sired by Silkwood, No. 12,384 record 2:04; dam, Phoebe by Ed Barton, 2:24; dam, Mollie by Maceppa, sire of Happy, 2:27. Woodnymph was broken at 12 months old, and when owned by Mr. Willets, paced quarters in 20 seconds.

ANNIE V. DURIE, Guardian.

MATLOCK & KILGUS, Auctioneers.

JAPANESE PILE CURE

A new and complete treatment, consisting of Supportives, Ointment in Capsules, also in box and pills; a positive cure for external, internal, blind or bleeding, itching, chronic, recent or hereditary piles. This remedy has never been known to fail. Suffer from this terrible disease when a written guarantee is positively given with six boxes. To refund the money if not cured. Send stamp for free sample. Guarantee issued by G. F. Main St., Los Angeles, Cal.

Largest Clothing, Hat and Shoe House on the Coast!

TODAY!

We unpack the balance of Messrs. Havermale & Rossier's Fine Shoes, which we bought from

Sheriff John H. Folks,

Sheriff of San Diego County,

And give the public their pick and choice of "the cream" of our big purchase at prices that'll place into obscurity and pale into insignificance all our past bargains and grand values. Don't miss

★ Today's Great Slaughter ★

—Of Ladies', Men's and Children's Fine Shoes.

Burt & Packard's celebrated shoes will go at about 60 cents on the dollar!

MEN'S and BOYS' SUITS and OVERCOATS!

All our latest fall styles are unpacked and ready for inspection. No such stock on the entire Pacific Coast to select from. If you value your dollars come and see us at once.

Children's Knee Pants—25c; all sizes.

Bargains Elsewhere at—50c.

Jacoby Brothers

Los Angeles' Leading Clothiers and Shoers!

Retail Stores: 128, 130, 132 and 134 N. Spring-st.

Stores open this evening till 10 o'clock. Flooded by Gas and 20 Electric Arc Lights.

The Largest and Most Complete Clothing, Hat and Shoe Establishment West of the Rocky Mountains!

Dr. Liebig & Co.

SPECIALISTS—

For Chronic Diseases and

DISEASES of MEN.

Branch of the Dr. Liebig Co. of San Francisco, permanently located at 123 S. Main St., — Los Angeles.

The only surgeons in Los Angeles performing the latest operations required for a radical cure of Stricture, Gleet, Gonorrhea, Syphilis, Spermatorrhea, Varicocele, Piles, Hemorrhoids and Rectal diseases, Eye, Ear, Nose, Throat and Lung, diseases of the Digestive system and diseases of women and children. Appliances for Rupture, Curvature of the Spine, Club Foot and all deformities manufactured by our own instrument maker. YOU! suffering from the results of intemperance, excesses, causing nervous debility, mental weakness, loss of vigor and memory, despondency, kidney, heart, brain, blood and genito-urinary diseases. MEN! older in years, having too frequent evacuations of bladder, with loss of vital material, phosphorus, etc., wool or brick dust deposits in urine, which are symptoms of secondary seminal weakness, the loss of invigorating the vital organ. COMPLICATIONS—The reason thousands cannot get cured of above complaints is owing to complications not understood by ordinary doctors. DR. LIEBIG & CO. have discovered the secret of curing the complications and treat successfully all above diseases. FREE—Dr. Liebig's Wonderful German Invisorator, the greatest remedy for above diseases, to prove its merits, a $1.00 bottle given free with confidential book for men. All of our physicians constantly in attendance from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m.

HANCOCK BANNING,

Importer of South-

field

Wellington Lump

COAL!

Office, 130 W. Second-st., Telephone 36. Yard, 838 N. Main-st., Telephone 1047.

Wood and Kindling

ARISTO PHOTOS!

Lower

The Latest Photographic Success.

Bring first to introduce ARISTO Photos in this city, we will make the camera size for a short time at $5.50 per dozen. They are worth, and should be made for not less than $5.00. Four premiums and diplomas awarded DEWEY at last Fair. Babies, Children's and Family Groups a specialty. Developing and finishing for amateurs. DEWEY'S ART PARLORS 121-123 S. Spring St., 147 S. Main St.

J. T. SHEWARD,

113-115 N. Spring st.

As you pass along the street tonight after 6 o'clock

you will find all the dry goods houses open but this.

All the employees in this house have three hours

more leisure; they have ample time for their meals, and during the day they will all work a little harder to show their appreciation for the favors granted them. No doubt

we will sell fully as many goods. Our employees will all be in good spirit and feel like taking a little more pains to treat everybody cordially and well. The greatest hardship comes upon the lady clerks. It is a well-known fact very little is done in heavy trading, and what trade there is centers at the notions, hosiery and underwear; for the little gain these lady clerks put in three hours more time.

There is a large expenditure for gas and electric light, and some of the ladies live two and three miles from the business center; this necessitates a cool ride home on the street car, and perhaps 10 o'clock rolls around before they are home. We believe in extending favors to our help, and we believe they return it four-fold by the little extra attention they take in waiting upon trade. Employees are liable to be a little careless when they are being imposed upon. One of the employees in one of the large houses made the statement that their sales on one entire side on a Saturday night was $1.69; this shows at once that there was but very little effort made to sell goods. Employees who work Saturday night do not enter for good work;

they are out of sorts all day and have not the ambition

they would have if their employer would take a little personal interest in their welfare. Personal interest—these are small words, but they have a powerful meaning. We aim to conduct this business to merit the good will from the employees and good will from the public. To-day

P. & P. Kid Gloves, $1.00, $1.25, $1.50, $1.75 and

$2.00; Saturday is always a good kid glove day; today it will be better than usual. The name of P. & P. Kid

Gloves is becoming better known; there are no better gloves and our long experience teaches us that good fitting and good wearing kid gloves are the only kind that will build up and hold a trade. Try a pair of P. & P. Kid Gloves.

We close tonight at 6 o'clock.

Conductors.

Gripmen.

Attention!

—We will furnish you with an All-wool
—Indigo Blue Uniform Suit, winter
—weight, for $16.00.

—You can't beat the value we offer. We —guarantee these suits fast color.

We Have { Straight Cut Sack Suits, Round-corner Sack Suits, Double-breasted Sack Suits.

—You can take Your Choice for $16.00.

—Is this not a Fair Offer?

Campaign

Plug Hats

—Given away with all Suits to —the value of $15.00 or More.

London Clothing Co.

Headquarters
for Overcoats

Corner Spring and Temple-sts.

SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS

Gibson & Tyler Co.

LARGEST DISPLAY: OF

FINE SHOES!

142 and 144
NORTH SPRING-ST
